THE POTTER COMMITTEE.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Hunter McMahon, Springer, Butler and Hiscock, of the Potter Committee, have been appointed a sub-committee to remain in Washington to complete the hearing of the testimony of witnesses now in the city. Potter, Morrison and Cox act as relief for both the New Orleans and Washington sub-committees.

The Committee met at 11:25. L. G. Dennis, of Florida resumed the stand, and stated that Cox, of Archer precinct, Alachua county, was objected to by the Democrats on account of alleged fraud; that the inspectors had a confidential conversation with the witness, and admitted that 219 fraudulent names were added to the list of voters. His personal knowledge of this fact was the partial cause for his declining to testify as required by Governor Noyes.

A letter of recommendation written by Governor Noyes was submitted. It proved to be merely a formal letter of recommendation to Secretary Sherman, mentioning the witness as one of the many Republicans ostracised in the State of Florida, and commending his application to the consideration of the Secretary.

The witness never knew of Governor Noyes having put in evidence before the Returning Board anything except the facts as furnished him; he never led Governor Noyes to believe or disbelieve that fraud existed in Alachua county.

Before Dennis left the stand, he was directed to be in readiness to appear before the Committee at its call, it having been decided that the case, so far as related to the manipulation of votes in Alachua county was not closed.

Minister Noyes was then sworn and testified that he was in attendance upon the Canvassing Board in Florida during the last Presidential election. Did not go at the request or knowledge, so far as he knows, of Hayes, and while there, did not receive either telegrams, letters or communications of any sort whatever from Governor Hayes. He took a legal part in the proceedings of the canvass, arguing cases before the board of canvassers, &c. He undertook to find out the facts relating to the alleged fraud in Alachua county Archer precinct number two, and owing to the parties swearing at one time one way and immediately thereafter swearing directly opposite, he lost all confidence in them, but finally from diligent inquiry and the consistent testimony of some forty or fifty Republicans that they had voted the republican ticket, he reached the honest conclusion that the count as returned was correct.

The witness pronounced the statement made by Gen. Cocke before the Florida sub-committee to the effect that he, (witness) Cowgill, Gov. Stearns and McLin, were locked together in the room of the Secretary of State before the meeting of the board, an unqualified falsehood.

Other testimony of no great importance from Gov. Stearns and Gen. Lew Wallace was submitted, and the Committee adjourned till to-morrow.

Acklen's Exoneration.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 28.— Congressman Acklen, now here, will publish a statement to-morrow, based upon the sworn testimony and written statements concerning the recent scandal so widely mentioned concerning his good name. He bitterly denounces the report as an unmitigated lie, and says, after quoting a letter from Gen. Rosser denying that he (Rosser) gave currency to the report, he can no further look to Rosser as the author of the attack upon him. The reports are shown to be denied by the brother of the lady in question by Gen. Rosser and by two waiters in the restaurant who state under oath that nothing could have occurred while Acklen was there.

A Conference on Mexican Affairs.

By telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—An important conference was held at the Executive Mansion to-day, between the President, General Sherman, General Ord, the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of State, on the subject of Mexican affairs. Ord detailed the condition of affairs on the border. The situation is regarded as very serious. The Mexican raids are too frequent and the government will be compelled to take additional measures to prevent them. Nothing has yet been decided. The subject will be further considered at a future conference.

Commissioners Conferring.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 28 —Messrs. Fenton, Walker, and Groesbeck, the American Monetary Commissioners, conferred with the Secretary of State to day on the subject of their duties. There was a general interchange of views on the financial system of this and other governments. All the Commissioners will accept, and the meeting will be held at Paris, on August 10th, instead of July 25th, as originally proposed.

WINSTON AND MOORESVILLE RAILROAD.

A Meeting in Winston that Meant Business.

Correspondence of the News.

WINSTON, June 27.

At 1 o'clock to-day a number of citizens of Winston and Salem, with delegates from Leaksville, Mooresville, Stokes and Davie, assembled in the Court House, and Col. Alspaugh, chairman of the previous meeting, called the house to order, and requested committees appointed at a previous meeting, to report. The object of the previous meeting was to make a move to build a railroad from Mooresville, N. C., via Winston, to Danville, Va.

A resolution was offered and adopted to form a company, under an existing statute of North Carolina, which should form a permanent company, to elect a board of directors, pledge a certain amount of money, receive subscriptions &c, and to make the necessary arrangements to build a railroad from Winston to Mooresville, to be called the Winston and Mooresville Railroad, and to be extended to Danville as soon as practicable. Mooresville pledged $26,000, Davie county $20,000, and Winston $30,000. The meeting then adjourned to meet at an early day to elect directors, and begin operations.

GOOD TOBACCO SALES.

The Highest Average yet Made.

Danville News.

According to announcement the breaks of tobacco at Cabell Warehouse on yesterday was large and attractive. Among others, Mr. John T. Burton, near Prospect Hill, Caswell county, N. C., had on sale a very fine load of tobacco which was sold at an average of sixty dollars. This is the largest average made by any warehouse in Danville for this tobacco year, for so large a quantity of tobacco, there being 1,885 lbs in this load.

The Cabell also sold for Mr. G. D Mayse, of Pittsylvania county, Va., some fine tobaccos at the following prices: 301 lbs at $78.00; 295 lbs at $67.00; 400 lbs at $22.00; 325 lbs at $13 25. Average $42.65. This was no specially advertised sale by the Cabell Warehouse, but of frequent occurence there.

Public Land Rings.

New York World.

At the average price obtained this year according to the published returns, of lands upon the Pacific railroads is greatly in excess of that authorized by the law under which the lands were granted in aid of their construction. The Union Pacific has received at the rate of $5.03 per acre; the Kansas Pacific $3 38, and the Denver Pacific $3.67 per acre; and that, too, when the statute declares "that all lands granted to to the company, and which shall not be sold or disposed of by said company within three years after the entire road shall have been completed, shall be subject to settlement and pre-emption, like other lands, at a price not exceeding 1.25 per acre, to be paid to said company." This violation of law is one of the worst hinderances to emigration, for it has the direct effect to keep the alternate sections of government lands out of the market.

WILSON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Governor Vance in Wilson--Fifteen Hundred People greet Him--His Address on Education--Scenes and Incidents--God Bless Our Beloved Governor--An Eventful Week in the History of Wilson.

Reported specially for the News.

WILSON, June 27.

This has been an eventful week in the history of Wilson, and her citizens, noted as they are for their intelligence, and hospitality, their great love for education, feel proud of the events of the present week. This feeling is not confined to the beautiful town of Wilson, the county, but the neighboring counties. Visitors from almost every section of Eastern North Carolina have been present during the interesting commencement exercises of the

WILSON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

On Tuesday, June 25th, at 8 p. m. the commencement exercises of this noble institute of learning began. This school is intended for both classes, and liberally patronized by both sexes. It is strictly non-sectarian, and its standing is of the highest order.

Professor Sylvester Hassel, A. M., Principal, assisted by a very able Faculty, has succeeded in building up one of the best schools in North Carolina.

The address before the Stonewall Literary Society, by H. G. Connor the talented, and brilliant young lawyer of Wilson, was one of the most practical and useful we have ever heard. His advice to the young men who were soon to become citizens of our dear old State was worthy of an older head. It was the universal opinion of all who heard it that it was an able effort, evincing the very highest order of tallent and reflecting great credit upon the popular speaker. Wilson has cause to feel paoud of young Connor, and we trust that at no distant day to see him honored and remarded by the good people of Wilson. He deserves it.

At 10 o'clock p. m. the exercises closed with music by the young ladies of the school, and announcement of programme for the next day.

Just here we must add that the large and beautiful chapel of the Institute was filled by an audience far beyond the seating capacity, which is estimated at six hundred.

The very best of order prevailed, the young girls looked bright and happy, while the boys conducted themselves with great credit to the school. "Boys will be boys you know" but the boys of Professor Hassell's school are good boys.

After the address of Mr. Connor, the members of the Stonewall Literary Society gave a social entertainment to the students, patrons of the school, and a few invited friends. Here ice cream, cake, and other "good things" were partaken of by the guest. This was really a delightful affair, and the young men belonging to the Society deserve great credit for their splendid entertainment.

At 11 p. m., "good night" was said, the boys and girls retired to their alcoves, or rooms, to sleep and dream of the events of the next day, while the guests, a few only, went at once to a hop then going on at Mamona Hall.

School Commencements, Hops, "Reapings" and such things are the order of the day now, and why shouldn't our young people enjoy themselves? But we must hurry on to coming events. We enjoyed the "ball or hop," and at midnight retired to read the News, the people's paper, and to dream of "Telephonic Interviews" which so much interests the good citizens of North Carolina to-day.

ANNUAL MEETING OF TRUSTEES.

On Wednesday, June 26th, at 9 a. m., the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees took place, which was largely attended.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES—

CONFERRING OF DEGREES, ETC.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Wilson Collegiate Institute, held on Wednesday morning, June 26th, eleven members were present.

Upon the recommendation of the Faculty, the degree of Bachelor of the Science of Accounts, was conferred on the following young gentlemen: Edwin B. Deans, Walter R. Lawrence, and James Lipscomb. Out of a class of seven, these three had entitled themselves to graduation in the Commercial Department, by attaining an average grade of 90 or upwards in spelling, English grammar, arithmetic, penmanship, and book-keeping.

Eld. P. D. Gold was chosen permanent president of the board in place of Hon. Asa Biggs, deceased

In honor of the late president, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It hath pleased Almighty God since we last met to remove from time to eternity our beloved brother and fellow truste , the President of the Board, the Hon. Asa Biggs; and,

WHEREAS, It is meet that we should offer some testimonial (feeble though it be), to his great worth, and of our esteem; therefore,

Resolved, 1*st*. That in the death of Asa Biggs, this Institution has lost one of its firmest friends, staunchest supporters, and ablest directors; that the Board of Trustees has lost a member who, as president and head, was cool, calm, collected in deliberation, firm, gentle, and courteous as presiding officer, judicious, high-toned, and conservative in all advice given. We miss him sadly. We mourn his loss.

Resolved, 2*d*. That while we delight to honor him and now cherish his memory as the distinguished judge, the emident statesman, and the high-minded, honorable lawyer, yet we chiefly pay tribute to him as the honest man, the devout, pious, consistent Christian, and the warm-hearted, genial, cordial companion and friend.

Resolved, 3*d*. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and a copy forwarded to the bereaved widow, with assurances of our sincerest sympathy in her great loss; and with the prayer that their next union will be in that state of unending felicity fast by the Throne of God.

C. B. HASSELL, Chairman.
JAS. S. WOODARD, Secretary.

At 11 a. m. the board of trustees adjourned.

At 8 p. m., a large and appreciative audience assembled to hear the debate on the query. "Ought North Carolina to become a Manufacturing State?" Disputants, J. J. Pittman and Charles A. Taylor, on the Affirmative; and Jas. W. Hines and Frank A. Daniels, on the Negative.

Prof. T. B. Brewer, H. G. Connor and John E. Woodard, were selected as the committee or "jury of award."

The entertainment opened by music, and then the contest began.

Mr. Taylor, son of N. J. M. Taylor, who will represent Wilson in the lower house of the next General Assembly opened the debate. He advocated the affirmative in a very able manner. His pictures—one of a pleasant home of the farmer as it should be, and the other as it actually exists in North Carolina at the present day, were true to life. His address was really very fine, and reflected credit on himself and the excellent school.

Frank A. Daniels, followed on the negative, and right well did he argue the question. "North Carolina should be an agricultural State," said he, and quoted authorities which sustained his position.

Mr. J. J. Pittman followed on the affirmative. Mr. Pittman displayed genuine oratorical powers, and deserves especial mention at our hands.

Mr. James Hines followed on the negative, and acquitted himself handsomely. The speakers were allowed five minutes each to reply to the various arguments. All did well, but we tell the young gentlemen that a little more study of grammar, &c., is yet necessary to perfect them as public speakers.

The affirmative carried the day, and justly so, too. North Carolina should become a manufacturing State, and as soon as possible.

Music followed, and at midnight the immense audience dispersed, highly plessed with the entertainment.

GOV. VANCE.

During the day the report had obtained currency that our beloved Governor would not be able to fulfill his engagement in consequence of domestic obligations, and rueful indeed were the countenances that were drooping in the apprehended shadow of the dreaded disappointment. But on day light, on Thursday, the News winged with the joy pointed plumage of delight, sped from house to house, from street corner to street corner, from town to country, and soon every avenue leading into Wilson was swept by the rushing tides of expectant humanity, glistening in the sunshine of animated expression.

Before the appointed hour 10 a. m., the large Chapel was filled to overflowing, as well as the grounds contiguous thereto, which fact alone evidenced the truth that the magic name of Vance was the irresistible magnetism that drew that vast assemblage together. At 10:15 o'clock, he made his appearance, and then it was the grand pregnant moment had come, the moment in which the feelings of rapturous excitement must break their channels of silence and overflowed the narrowing banks of rigid restraint. The emotions which had been so gloriously crystallizing into fervid glowing, now burst forth upon the winged breath of applause, and were swept away upon the stormy waves of heart-throbbed enthusiasm. Who could have witnessed that scene of admiration and then felt that Vance was not the favorite son, and not enshrined in the affections and confidence of the people of North Carolina. But this is superfluous; it is like carrying coal to New Castle. A name that is written in the splendor of his country's service, and emblazoned with the lustre of magnificent example needs no word from us.

The excellent address closed amidst great applause.

Immediately thereafter, Prof. Hassell addressed the Governor, thanking him for his very able and eloquent address to the pupils of the school.

RECEPTION, &C.

Following this was a general rush by all to shake the hand of Gov. Vance. The immense audience, certainly not less than 1,500, would not leave the hall and grounds until all had taken the hand of their beloved Governor. The young ladies presented lovely bouquets—the married seemed to think that it was their bounden duty to offer the hand of welcome to one who so richly deserves everything at their hands.

One dear little child, among a hundred others, came up with the tears sparkling in her eye and said "let me shake hands too mama."

What a hold upon the people. Vance is North Carolina's favorite son. True, honest, and beloved by his people. We all hope to see him honored by the highest gift in the hands of his constituents.

Among the prominent persons present were Captain J. R. Thigpen, of Edgecombe, General Joshua Barnes, Geo. W. Blount, of Wilson, and Hon. N. W. Boddie, of Nash county.

The grand concert will come off to-night.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

The Methodists at Fremont--Address of Presiding Elder Closs---Interesting Proceedings.

Reported for the News.

FREMONT, June 27.

You will observe that my report embraces a part of two days; the morning and evening sessions. The evening session was opened with prayer by Rev. W. H. Watkins, of Mt. Olive, T. A. Wainright, O. Hubbs, C. B. Price and W. R. Bryan, lay delegates, were announced as present; alternates, Rev. M. C. Field and Rev. W. H. Cuninggim. The minutes of the morning session were read and approved. The chair then introduced to the Conference Rev. W. S. Roan, of Tarboro Station. On motion Rev. W. S. Cuninggim was elected assistant Secretary.

The Conference being fully organized and ready for business. The chair then addressed the Conference.

ADDRESS OF DOCTOR CLOSS.

The remarks of Dr. Closs were so appropriate that I will give them in substance. He was gratified to have the opportunity, for the first time, of meeting the District Conference of the New Berne District. Since your last convocation some that were with you then, are now no more! It is a subject of profound gratitude to the great Head of the Church that so many of us have been permitted to meet, this, the first day of our Conference. The church has had her difficulties and her trials, and she has also had her triumphs since the adjournment of your last session. And now that we are met again, important interests will pass under review by you as a conference. The first and by far the most important is the spiritual interest of the church, within the bounds of the District. To this matter you will, doubtless, give special attention.

Important changes have evidently taken place in our church since my connection with her in the early days of my youth, whether those are changes in reality or only in the different mode of manifestations will be a subject of serious inquiry for you to consider. I will suggest what I mean—in my youth and in my early manhood, in the ministry—under the preaching of the gospel, there were unmistakable manifestations of powerful awakenings among the unconverted of our congregations, and men and women like the trembling jailor earnestly inquired what they must do to be saved. There were also with those who were penitent clear and powerful conversions to God; so powerful were the manifestations of the holy spirit, both to the subjects of these conversions and also to the spectators asto leave no doubt of a genuine change of the heart. To my mind there obtains now, in too many instances would what I call a modification in those matters.

Persons now approach the altar for prayer at least seemingly not to realize their lost and ruined condition. And in too many instances professions of conversions are made hesitatingly, and under circumstances that leave both the person himself and the church in doubt. It becomes us to seriously inquire whether this change from what in former days we witnessed, is real or only a change in manifestation. Another important matter that you will inquire into will be the attendance of the members of our church upon its ordinances, and also the social meetings of the church.

Here Dr. Closs specified as prominent, prayer meetings and class meeting, dwelling at length upon class meetings as once constituting one of the distinctive features of Methodism.

He also called special attention to the work and importance of Sunday schools, also the educational interest of the church and her financial system.

On motion of Rev. J. R. Brooks, the committee on public worhip was instructed to so arrange as to have preaching at 11 o'clock each day. On motion of Rev. J. T. Bagwell, the conference fixed the time for adjourning the morning session at 11 o'clock, and the evening session at 5 o'clock, stated that the spiritual condition of the church had very much improved since the last conference. The church had recently been blessed with a gracious revival of religion. In some respects it was the best he had ever witnessed. About forty professed faith in Christ. The love feast and prayer meetings was well attended. Class meeting are not kept. Two Sabbath Schools in successful operation. About two-sixths of the assessments have been paid.

NEW BERNE STATION, REV. J. R. BROOKS, PASTOR,

GOLDSBORO STATION, REV. J. T. BAGWELL, PASTOR.

The spiritual interest of the church was very good, although they had seven members, who do not live as they should, yet they have a great many devout men and women. They had love-feasts occasionally, but no class meetings. The Sunday-school is increasing and doing much good. One good feature, I observed in his report, was that he called the children together once a month and lectured to them. They have prayer-meetings that are well attended. The financial system works well—the assessment plan—5 6 of the whole assessment has been paid.

WAYNE CIRCUIT—REV. W. C. GANNON, PASTOR.

He has six appointments—gives them all Sabbath preaching. The spiritual condition of the church was by no means bad, but that it would compare favorably with other charges. The attendance was remarkably good. Some do not commune, not because they love God less, but, perhaps, they do not understand the nature of the sacrament. Have Sunday-schools at all the appointments; all of them were doing well, but the school house at Freemont, presided over by Bro. Geo. Best, was the best he had ever seen. It worked without any friction. The financial interest was by no means discouraging. Spoke of the embarrassing circumstances under which he was placed when he came from a station to this circuit, and how nobly his stewards came to his rescue. About half has been paid.

Prayer mee ings are kept up as well as could be under the circumstances. Class meetings won't work, but did not believe it was for the want of religion. It was announced that Rev. B. B. Culbreth would preach at night. On motion the conference adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Closs. Rev. B. B. Culbreth, of the Lenoir circuit preached at night from 9 ch. St. John, 25 v.

Subject—Experimental Religon. It was a plain, practical, good sermon.

SECOND DAY.

Conference met at 9 o'clock; religious services conducted by Rev. C. C. Dodson.

The minutes were read and approved. The chair then called the roll of the different circuits and stations, and the following additional members announced as present: Rev. C. C. Dodson, Rev. W. H. Call, Rev. A. J. Finlayson, Rev. J. Johnston and Mr. A. McCullen.

The chair stated that Rev. J. W. Wheeler, of Beaufort Station, would not be present on account of sickness. The regular business was then resumed.

WILSON STATION,

Rev. C. C. Dodson, pastor, stated that the spiritual condition of the church was good, and that there was a manifest improvement, in the cause of religion. All of the ordinances of the church are well attended. They have two Sunday Schools, both are doing well. Finances in a healthful state. Mr. Dodson stated that he had not missed but one appointment during the year.

and that was from sickness. [There are but few appointments more desirable within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference or more desirable than Wilson.—REPORTER.]

A question arose relative to dancing and dram drinking, which was discussed at some length. It would make this report too long to itemize all the points, and it is a matter of no news that the Methodist Church are at war with the modern dance and dram drinking.

MT. OLIVE CIRCUIT,

Rev. W. H. Watkins, pastor, stated that there had been a marked improvement in the spiritual condition of the church since this time last year. About one hundred had joined the church. One new congregation had recently been organized, and they were building a new house of worship. Have bought and neatly fixed up a parsonage in the town of Mt. Olive. Financial interest is in good condition.

KINSTON STATION.

Rev. J. P. Simpson, pastor, was absent, and the Presiding Elder reported that all the interest of the church were in remarkably good condition. They have a good parsonage that belongs to the church.

SNOW HILL CIRCUIT.

Rev. W. H. Call, pastor, said the spiritual interest of his charge was in fair condition. The attendance upon the social meetings of the church were very good. They labor under some disadvantages in not having efficient men to conduct the different social meetings of the church.

The communion service is well attended. There was every evidence of better things for them in the future. Stated that he had some difficulty with a few members who drink—also with dancing. The financial condition was about on par.

NEUSE CIRCUIT.

Rev. J. E. Bristow, pastor, said the spiritual interest of the church was not as good as it ought to be, but things were looking hopeful. Nearly all of his appointments desired what Methodists call a

PROTRACTED MEETING.

This was a decided evidence of a growing interest in the cause of Christ. They had no financial system, hence they were in a crippled condition. The Sabbath-school interest was very promising.

The chair announced that the Conference would engage in prayer-meeting to-morrow morning at 8½ o'clock. The Conference adjourned for divince service, when Rev. T. B. Ricks preached from I. Tim., 3d c. 13 v. Subject: The great mystery of Godliness. As I did not hear the sermon, I cannot give you a synopsis of it.

Rev. W. S. Roan, of Tarboro, will preach to-night.

A GOOD SCHOOL.

Under the supervision of Prof. Bagley, the school here is rapidly growing in popular favor. He is a very worthy and competent teacher, and has given universal satisfaction to his patrons. He has associated with him as instructress, Miss Brittannia Sanders, a highly accomplished lady, who has charge of the female department. It is with regret that our citizens have learned of her intention to sever her connection with the school. Many kind wishes attend her wherever she may go. This school is an ornament to the town, and we are glad to be able to say it is receiving the encouragement and patronage it so justly deserves.

CARD OF DECLINATION.

Hon. P. H. Winston, of Bertie.

To the News.

WINDSOR, June 24, 1878.

Some of the papers and a number of my friends have suggested that the approaching Congressional Convention at Edenton, shall nominate me; it being alleged that harmony among the aspirants would thus be secured.

It will be remembered that some eight years ago, for reasons given, I was compelled to decline the same honor then tendered. The same reasons exists now as then. I do not suppose there is any strong probability of my being nominated now. But to set the matter at rest I state through your paper that, while I thank my friends, I cannot accept the nomination.

P. H. WINSTON, SR.

Improvement in the Art of Dress.

Harper's Bazar.

Great improvements have been made lately in corsets. As the princess dress now worn defines the hips as plainly as the waist, all corsets have been lengthened, both in the busks and over the hips, where they fit as smoothly as a glove fits the hand. Stiff busts formed by cross bones or by thick cords stitched in are also liked, as they dispense with the pads worn by ladies who have flat chests. The steels or busks are also made more flexible, and may be bent into a circle without breaking. There are also bread doubled steels for those who like wide busks; these are very light, yet flexible.

A brand of corsets is distinguished by having its steels covered with kid, which makes them pleasantly soft against the flesh and keeps them from being rusted by moisture. Striped coutille and the plain jean are the materials most used in white and pale gray shades; there are also many high colored blue and scarlet corsets sold.

TOBACCO IN THE EAST.

The Best Field of Tobacco in the State.

Correspondence of the News.

LAGRANGE, N. C., June 27.

Having been detained from my business by a fearful boil on my left hand, I made it convenient to stay at the hospitable mansion of my young friends, Messrs. Council S and Shade I. Wooten, near LaGrange, in Lenoir county.

THEIR TOBACCO CROP.

I have been so carried away with the appearance of their tobacco crop, I feel like I must write about it. On the 25th of last April they planted eighteen acres, and to-day, June 25th, most of it is three feet high. They are now topping it. On the 6th of May they planted twelve acres more, making thirty acres in all, and it is equally as fine. Last year they made a small crop, but not knowing how to manage it, did not do so well. This year they determined to put their crop in the hands of an expert, and employed Mr. J. T. Burch a young and intelligent farmer who was raised in Person county who gives his whole time to its management, and judging from his great success up to this time, he must certainly understand his business.

COMPARED WITH OTHER SECTIONS.

I have travelled later in the season, through most of the best tobacco counties in this State and some in Virginia, and I have never seen, anywhere as fine a field of tobacco as this is. If it turns out as it now has the appearance of doing, it will mark a new era in the production of this section. Cotton will no longer be king, but will enter into the list of diversified husbandry, as it should.

GOOD FARMERS.

These young farmers, from the start, adopted the rule of making on the farm all it needed that it would produce—including even the raising of their mules and horses--which they are now successfully doing. Consequently they can afford to experiment, as they are out of debt and have abundant means for doing so. How different from the one-crop farmers who make all cotton, and give all they make to the shylocks of the railroad depots, and towns and cities of the State, to "run them."

RUNNING THEM.

By the way, "run them" is a new phrase, one created by the all-cotton farmers, since the war, I suppose, and its meaning may not be generally understood, but if its literal meaning could only be carried out, and every farmer who failed to make on his farm, all that his farm needed, that it would produce, was run out of town by his merchant when he called upon him to "run him," the future success of the farmers of this great old State would be a fixed fact. "Run them" is their great ignis fatus and the great curse of cotton makers. It is surprising that so many sensible men, as many of our farmers are, so persistently, "know the right, and the wrong pursue.

THE WOOTEN FARM.

This farm is about twelve miles below Goldsboro, and the land upon which this tobacco is now growing, has been constantly in cultivation, for at least a hundred years. These gentlemen plant largely in all crops, having this year over 200 acres in cotton, and the best crop of cotton I have seen since I left Raleigh, I find here. As a general thing I have never seen as poor a prospect for cotton and corn. The wheat crop now harvesting, is a failure, not half so good as last year.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Council S. Wooten's name is being canvassed by his friends for the nomination of State Senator, from Lenoir and Greene, and will no doubt receive the nomination. No better man will occupy a seat in that body. Our ticket for the Supreme Court, is universally popular down here among all classes and parties. I observe too that everybody has something to say about Vance and Merrimon. How I do wish we had a place for both.

W.

Mark Twain on Profanity.

In a note to the publishers of his justly celebrated Scrap Book, the famous humorist observes that he invented and patented it, "not to make money out of it, but to economize the profanity of this country." "For," he continues," "you know when the average man wants to find his scrap book he can't find his paste—then he swears; or if he finds it, it is dried so hard that it is only fit to eat—then he swears; if he uses mucilage it mixes with the ink, and next year he cannot read his scrap. The result is barrels and barrels of profanity." There is another circumstance in life under which the average man if liable to indulge in unlimited profanity. It is when the "family physician" sends him a bill of one or two hundred dollars for treating his wife, while that lady's face has become paler than ever, through the merciless persecutions of caustics and mechanical contrivances. If he does not impulsively send the whole medical profession on a subterranean journey, it is because he is a saint and deserves to be translated. The local treatment generally employed by physicians in this class of diseases is not only barbarous but productive of almost irreparable harm. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as a uterine tonic and restorative has won unqualified praise from thousands of grateful women.

THE Supreme Court is in too severe a mood to be poetic yet. Out of the fifteen opinions filed so far, they have reversed the Judges below in twelve.

IT is said that Colonel Humphrey is likely to be nominated for Congress by the Radicals in the second District, and if so, that Governor Brogden will certainly be an independent candidate.

THE nomination for Congress in this District is beginning to attract speculation. Hon. Jos. J. Davis, present incumbent, Hon. Jno. W. Graham, of Orange, and Judge Wm. R. Cox, of Wake, seem to be among those most prominently mentioned.

THE News correspondent at Oxford says that Robert Garner, Esq., one of the most substantial and popular men in the county has been nominated for Sheriff in place of J. B. Crews, Esq., the latter having declined to run. This nomination, it is thought, will insure the victory in Granville, as the Radicals are divided into several petty factions, and their nominees do not give satisfaction.

THE correspondent of the News, at Trinity College, has given very encouraging reports of Dr. Craven's Normal School at that place, and much good is being accomplished by him through that enterprise. Doctor Craven is no half-way man, and when he determines an undertaking in his mind, he is bound to go through with it. He built up Trinity College from almost nothing, and in no effort of his life has he failed. The success of Trinity Normal School was assured from the beginning.

Everything quiet in Greensboro. The suspension of the Wilson and Shober bank created no panic there. Public confidence remains unshaken in the integrity of the unfortunate gentlemen, and no one seems disposed to be ugly about it. A meeting of creditors is called for Friday, July fifth, at the office of Ball and Gregory. The trustees have matters fully in hand, and the general belief is that the assets can be so handled as to realize sufficient money to pay dollar for dollar. Public sympathy sets in favor of the co-partners who have lost all, and surrendered all they had to satisfy the just claims of the creditors who reposed their confidence in them, a confidence that seems not to have been wilfully abused.

The New Order of County Government.

In the present campaign, Democratic canvassers will have to meet Radical assaults upon the action of the last Legislature in the matter of what Republican township statesmen are pleased to call the infamous county government bill.

It will not be a difficult matter, anywhere, to defend the action of the late Legislature in these matters, for the law giving the election of magistrates to the Legislature, was the salvation of every county in the State having heavy Republican majorities, and these counties, which were all the seat of great wealth before the war, are still the heavy tax-paying counties, contributing, generally, the largest amounts into the State Treasury. It was, therefore, manifestly the duty of the Legislature, having regard for the public interest, leaving all matters of sentiment and sympathy out of the question, to do that which should best protect the sources from which come contributions to the public fund.

The convention of 1875 was called, mainly for the purpose of providing a different system of county government, and without that purpose in view, the convention never would have been called. The East came up to the Legislature praying at its hands the call of a convention, which should so amend the constitution as to place it within the power of the Legislature to institute a system of better government, and pass laws for their relief and protection. The West very nobly responded to the appeal, and, although a majority of the counties were suffering little or no inconvenience, and many attached to the forms that had been adopted and like the new system nevertheless, with an almost perfect unanimity, their Senators and Representatives came forward and voted to call the constitutional convention of 1875. The ordinances of that body gave the Legislature the power, and the sentiment which called the convention into existence, and which controlled its action looking to the future, made it obligatory upon the Legislature to adopt the system of county government inaugurated at the January session of 1877.

The public sentiment of the State has sustained the action of the Legislature. All the results which have flown therefrom have been good, and when the counties shall this Fall pass under the control of the commissioners to be chosen by the full board of magistrates of each county, then full fruits of the new county Government system will be seen and appreciated, and thereafter it will only be necessary to point to a single Eastern county, as under the old and the new rule, to completely silence all captious criticism on the action of the Legislature of 1876-77 touching the county government bill. At present it is sufficient to justify all that was done to simply point to the condition of those Eastern counties still under the radical commissioner rule which began ten years ago. There every thing has been depressing and extravagant, respecting the public management. Every right of the tax-payer has been outraged, and the peoples' money wrung from them to support the rule of radicalism. There has been neither efficiency nor honesty in those county administrations, the substance of the people has been absorbed as well as their rights curtailed, they have been outraged, insulted, dispirited and their energies repressed to an extent affecting the general prosperity and welfare of those communities beyond any power to compute, and the public damage done has been as keenly felt by the State treasury as by the people in the radical ridden counties.

Although the magistrates do not assume control of the county governments through commissioners of their own choosing until in September, when the terms of those elected two years ago expire, the Justices of the Peace chosen by the Legislature appointed finance committees to look after affairs of the county. The finance committee of Edgecombe has just made an examination there, and in its report says:—

"In making examination of the minutes of the Board of Commissioners, we discover irregularities and large extra allowances to various parties which are not sanctioned by custom nor in accordance with law. From the extravagant and wasteful manner in which the public business has been managed in the past few years, we find the county debt, fully double what good judges supposed it to be, and showing an actual increase, during the past twelve months, of about $5,000, when an actual increase, was reasonably expected, from the well known fact that there has been little or no bridge building or other large necessary expenditures during the period last named."

Edgecombe is one of the wealthiest and best tax paying counties in the State. Her people are thrifty and enterprising, and the county should not have a dollar of indebtedness, and would not had the taxes collected for county purposes been properly applied; yet it is found that she owes an actual debt of eighteen thousand, three hundred and sixty-six dollars and thirty-five cents, of which more than seventeen thousand dollars is for outstanding county orders, witness and jury tickets, which have been out long enough to accumulate interest of over a thousand dollars.

Think of a county like Edgecombe having orders, witness and jury tickets out of long standing! A county that annually pays a tax along with the largest in the State, and where there is never any difficulty about the collection of either County or State taxes. And then say, if you can, that there was not urgent need and a crying demand for a change in the system, or at least a system so modified as to make it possible to get the public affairs into different hands. That change has been effected, and after September next there will be no finance reports like that just submitted.

This county has been here referred to not as an exceptional case, but simply on account of the publication made by the finance committee in the Tarboro Southerner. The other radical governed counties are nearly all in the same condition, and many much worse when the matter was closely looked into during the campaign of two years ago, and if relief had not come at the hands of the last Legislature, these counties would have been irretrievably ruined.

Radical Affairs in Granville.

The Republicans in Granville have nominated three colored men for the Legislature. Wm. A. Turner, for the Senate; Wm. Crews and W. P. Parham, for the House. The nominees for county offices are white, which is as much as to say to the colored man you take the Legislature, which is empty honor and no pay, and we will take the county, which is all solid pay. A seat in the Legislature, be it remembered is worth just two hundred and forty dollars every two years, a stipend of ten dollars a month, on which a statesman is to support himself and family, and pay the expenses of a winter at the capital.

The convention was reported to have been a noisy affair, and on its conclusion much dissatisfaction at its action was manifested. Col. R. W. Lassiter, Jas. I. Moore, old sheriff, Manly B. Jones, and Ike Young's brother Q, all prominent aspirants who had worked hard for the nomination, were defeated, to the disgust of their many ardent and enthusiastic supporters, quite a number of whom avow they will not support the ticket. Lassiter and Moore have made speeches denunciatory of the ticket and the manner of its triumph. Colonel Hargrove goes his whole length for it, however, and in a speech endorsed the nominees, urging the duty of sustaining the Republican party by supporting its candidates in the present crisis. This ticket is the triumph of the Cozart faction, and as Moore, the leader of the other, has a large following the murmurs of discontent among his friends are loud and long.

Evidently the radical party in Granville is in a bad way, and if the Democrats do not carry the county it will be then our fault. Suffering as they have under radical misrule for the past ten years, they should be actuated by the single purpose to redeem their county, and there should be no division among them. Let every man put his shoulder to the wheel and elect Democratic county and Legislative officers, and if there are differences let them be adjusted hereafter.

The Public Spirit.

At no period in the history of this State was so much matter relating to schools and educational institutions ever given to the public as has been published in the columns of the News during the past four weeks.

That so much matter of this character has been voluntarily contributed, establishes two facts; first, that the News is read and well thought of throughout the State, for people do not send their contributions to a paper which they do not like; and in the second place, the people are more moved on the subject of education than they ever manifested before. It has been observed that in all matters where public spirit comes into play, the people of North Carolina are now more alive than has been known at any time within our history as a State.

These things, so gratifying to note, are the result of Democratic success in 1876. A new era then dawned upon us, and from the incoming of the present State administration a steady march has been made toward progress and prosperity. The State administration has been vigilant on all occasions in fostering this spirit of public enterprise, and it is safe to say that so much was never accomplished in a given period under the like adverse circumstances which surround every enterprise throughout the whole country. The people of North Carolina have abundant cause to congratulate themselves on their conquest of radicalism two years ago, securing as they did, a State government so admirable and efficient in every respect.

Greensboro Female College.

It was stated by the News correspondent at Greensboro that Wilson and Shober had an investment of some thirty-eight thousand dollars in the Greensboro Female College, which has been assigned to their creditors.

Of course the failure of these gentlemen will in nowise affect that most excellent school. There will be no sacrifice of any of the property of Wilson and Shober, and the Methodists of North Carolina have too much at stake in the college to allow it to pass from under the auspices of the church. They cannot afford to lose the wholesome, high, religious and moral training which the young girls of their households blooming into womanhood, receive there.

But it would be of very great advantage to the school just at this time if some gentlemen of the Methodist Church would step forward and take the place of Wilson and Shober, thus insuring the continuance of the school without question, and relieving all apprehensions that might exists as to the future fortunes of the institution. The educational interests of this State, without regard to sect or creed, cannot afford to see this Female College suffer.

THE News correspondent at Winston reports a railroad meeting on Wednesday at that place, composed of representatives from Rockingham, Iredell, Stokes, Davie and Forsyth, assembled to take measures for the construction of a railroad from Mooresville, in Iredell, to Danville, Virginia, and that the meeting talked business. Winston pledged thirty thousand, Davie county twenty, and Mooresville twenty-six thousand dollars, making seventy-six thousand. A meeting will be held at an early day to elect a board of directors, and begin the operations of constructing the road. These people of the sections through which the road is to pass are to be commended for their enterprise, which should receive all possible aid and encouragement from the whole people of that belt of counties, for it is upon such movements as this, carried to successful issues, that North Carolina has to depend for her progress and prosperity. Let the spirit of public enterprise and energy here displayed be infused into every community of the State.

Oxford and Henderson Railroad.

The Engineer, Major R. P. Atkinson, has sent in his report of survey for the proposed railroad route from Oxford to Henderson.

From this report, a News correspondent at Oxford says, it is obvious that the cost of building the road will be much less than was originally supposed, and with proper effort and liberality the road can be put in operation within a short time.

Of the importance of this enterprise to Oxford, Henderson and Granville county, and all contiguous territory, it is scarcely necessary to say anything. It would open up to communication one of the finest sections of the State, and give ready outlet to the rich products of a county famed in the markets of the country. Granville tobacco has always held a high place in the estimation of manufacturers, dealers and consumers, and with railroad facilities there is no reason why Oxford should not become a leading, live manufacturing town.

THE Legislative ticket in Pitt is E. A. Moye, for the Senate; D. C. Moore and J. V. Perkins for the House. Delegates to the Congressional Convention were instructed to vote for Hon. Jesse J. Yeates for renomination. The Democrats will carry Pitt this year by an increased majority, and the above gentlemen will constitute a good delegation to the Legislature.

Story Wit.

"Did you ever dabble in stocks?" asked a lawyer of a witness who was known to have fled from his native land to this asylum of the free. "Well, yes, I got my foot in 'em once, in the old country," was the reply.

LIVE IN LEITRIM.—Saxon angler: "Oh, but I can't try for salmon, I haven't got a license —" "Native: "Is it a loicense ye want to kill a fish? Saurse ye might kill a man or two about here an' nobody'd say a word t'ye!"—[Punch.

"Mr. Bresident," said a Buffalo alderman, "I makes der motion as der new jail be build on der same spot as der old jail what's now standing; that saves der money for der land, an I makes der motion as der old jail shall not be pull down till der new jail is built, so ve vill not be without der jail."—[Boston Commercial.

"Sound," said the schoolmaster, "is what you hear. For instance, you cannot feel a sound." "Oh, yes you can," said a smart boy. "John Wilson," retorted the pedagogue, "how do you make that out?" What sound can you feel?" "A sound thrashing," quickly replied the smart boy.

When Dickens was sitting before the camera for the picture in which he is shown writing, the photographer suggested that he should hold his pen more naturally: "Just as though you were writing one of your novels, Mr. Dickens," said he. "I see," said Dickens, "all of 'er twist."—[This is Dickens' only pun.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

Catawba County, N. C.

THIS desirable watering place will be open for select visitors 20th May, 1878. The Springs are situated near Hickory Station, on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The bracing mountain atmosphere, with the health restoring properties of their waters, renders these Springs a most desirable resort for invalids and pleasure seekers.

The mineral waters embrace Blue and White Sulphur and Chalybeate. It is the best and most extensively fitted up watering place in the State, and can accommodate three hundred persons.

A good Band of Music will remain at the Springs during the season, and all the facilities afforded for amusements usually found at first-class watering places will be offered to visitors. A good supply of ice constantly on hand.

Conveyances will meet the trains daily at Hickory Station, to convey visitors to the Springs.

Board: $35 per month of 28 days; $12 per week; $2 per day. Half price for children and colored servants, and liberal deduction for families.

——Letters addressed to Miss Laura A. Brown, Charlotte, and Jane Smith, colored, care of Col. J. M. Heck, Alleghany Springs, Va., are held for postage.

——The long hoped for rain came yesterday; it was not as much as needed, but it, however, was sufficient to lay the dust and cool the atmosphere very perceptibly; at two o'clock p. m. yesterday it was ten degress cooler than at the same hour on the previous day.

——The young men of Charlotte contemplate giving a German, Monday night, complimentary to two of Raleigh's belles, who are expected to visit that city. The Observer, chronicling the fact, says their failure to come will cause no small degree of disappointment.

Senator Merrimon.

Senator Merrimon will address his fellow-citizens on Monday evening at 8½ o'clock p. m., at Metropolitan Hall.

County Campaign.

It has been pretty well arranged to have the county campaign begin on the 11th of July, as the very latest day, allowing time for getting round the county.

Register Early.

The Democratic County Executive Committee requests that all will register promptly, within a week, if possible, as thereby will be given them a starting point for efficient work in the campaign.

A Call Accepted.

We are glad to learn that the Rev. John S. Watkins, of Virginia has decided to accept the call to pastorate of the first Presbyterian Church of this city, and will assume the duties the last of August.

Round trip fare from Raleigh to Weldon, $2.50. Weldon to Petersburg $1 50 Weldon to Richmond $2.00. Weldon to Portsmouth $2.00. See advertisement.

Tribute of Respect.

We notice that at a recent meeting of the delegates representing the "Third Georgia Survivors," held in Augusta Georgia, that they unanimously adopted as a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Maj. George W. Grice President of the R. & G. and A. A. L. Railroads, a series of resolutions, most complimentary to him as a citizen and soldier.

Young Men's Christian Association.

There was a full meeting of the Association last night, and many important measures were discussed and adopted. Fifty new members were received and the Association has been greatly revived and promises to accomplish much good in our city. It was unanimously decided to have union prayer meeting's under the management of the Association every Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, of which further notice will be given.

Supreme Court.

Court opened yesterday at 9 o'clock a. m. All the Justices were present.

The consideration of appeals from the 9 h Judicial District was resumed, and causes disposed of as follows:

M. L. Davis, administrator, vs. John L. Watkins et als., from Mecklenburg; called and continued by consent of parties, on motion pending for a writ of certiorari. Jones & Johnston for the plaintiff, and Shipp & Bailey for the defendants.

T. J. Shinn vs. W. A. Smith, from Cabarrus; argued by John W. Hinsdale for the plaintiff, and Wilson & Son for the defendant.

W. B. Withers, executor, vs. G. W. Stinson, from Mecklenburg; argued by Jones & Johnston and Dowd & Walker for the plaintiffs, and Shipp & Bailey for the defendant.

A. P. Newhart vs. H. B. Peters et als., from Mecklenburg; continued by consent of counsel for the parties.

Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this (Saturday) morning, when causes from the 9th District will be resumed.

Street Improvements.

With the laudable purpose on the part of a public officer to render an account of his official conduct to the people, Street Commissioner Betts, on yesterday, took a News reporter with him on a tour of inspection throughout the city, where street improvements have been made, and are still progressing under the new administration.

Those of our citizens who confine themselves to the business portion of the city, can form no idea of the amount of work which has been done, and of the great necessity which existed, and in some localities, still exists, for street improvements. At the intersection of the streets with the numerous public roads leading into the city, is where the heaviest work has been done, as these points in our public thoroughfares seem to have been the most neglected in the past. But while Commissioner Betts has given the much needed attention to these, he has by no means neglected other portions of the city, as will be seen by the appended note of improvements, all of which have been inaugurated under his supervision:

Corner of Blount Street and Newbern Avenue, substantial curbing and paving.

On Blount street, between Jones and Edenton, 220 feet gutter paving to a curbing put in by the owners of the property, forming at once a sidewalk and drain, which will last for all time.

On Davie and Bloodworth streets, long neglected culverts and gutters opened, and the latter street graded from the vicinity of the colored Deaf and Dumb Institution to its intersection with the Holleman road: and the Holleman road graded and ditched from this point to the city limits, making a total distance of more than than a half mile.

On South Wilmington street the gutters have been cleaned out and the street, which was impassible for vehicles, has been filled and smoothly graded.

The roadway and sidewalk running South and East, known as Jenkin's row has been put in good repair, as also a cross street connecting Wilmington street with the Fayetteville road.

On Fayetteville street, from the Governor's palace to the city limits, work is now being prosecuted looking to the permanent improvement of this much traveled highway which has for a long time been in a horribly rough and uneven condition. Here commissioner Betts is confining his work to the gutters and street along the premises of the palace, this being the State's property. The sidewalk which has dwindled and washed down to a narrow and uneven pathway will not be repaired by the city and it is hoped the State authorities will take the matter in hand, and put a good pavement in front of the entire length of the palace grounds.

Since Mr. Betts came into office, the work of filling the ponds on West Hargett Street near Brigg's shop, has been completed. In other portions of the city crossings have been repaired, drains opened, culverts put in and other minor matters attended to as demanded.

With no disposition to bestow unmerited praise, the News congratulates the Board upon the selection of Commissioner Betts and assures the tax paying public that he is faithfully and efficiently discharging the duties of his office.

Personal.

Midshipman E. A. Anderson, of Wilmington, has passed his examination at Annapolis.

Capt. J. H. McCorkle and lady, of Salisbury, are at Mrs. Evans', and we regret to learn that Mr. McCorkle is quite ill.

Maj. J. W. Wilson, President Western North Carolina Railroad, and Wm. A. Davis, Esq., Oxford Torchlight, were gazetted in Wilmington yesterday.

In the Chicago Guardian, a monthly journal devoted to Odd Fellowship, art, science, and general literature, of June 15, there is a likeness and interesting biographical sketch of Maj. Wm. H. Bagley, P. G. M. and G. R. of North Carolina, but the biography is more truthful of our excellent fellow-citizen than the picture, which does not quite do our good looking friend justice.

AT THE YARBROUGH.

J. M. Nathans, of Philadelphia, and A. S. Stewart, lady and child, of Rockingham.

Thos. A. Day, of Durham, and Rev. J. W. Wellons, of Franklinton.

Walter S. Johns, of Richmond, Virginia, and C. A. Hamner, of Baltimore.

AT THE NATIONAL.

Jas. T. Bynum, of Henderson; Jas. T. Jones, Norfolk; John T. Manville, Chicago; R. B. Hulse, New York, A. W. Ludolph, Baltimore.

Maj. W. H. Malone, of Marion, formerly a member of the Legislature, and recently clerk to Hon. R. B. Vance's Committee in Congress.

Capt. Thomas B. Bailey, formerly of this city and now of Georgia.

Henry Mozier and family, of Switzerland, on their way to Western North Carolina to settle.

SENATORIAL PERSONALS.

Rowan and Davie settle on a Senator at Ford's Mills to-day, says the Davidson Record.

The Senatorial nomination has not been yet settled upon from Buncombe and Madison.

Col. Terrel W. Taylor is the Senatorial candidate from Henderson, Haywood and Transylvania.

Hon. Jas. L. Robinson will be the Senator from Jackson, Swain, Clay, Macon, Cherokee and Graham, an empire within themselves.

Jones, Onslow and Carteret, the ninth district, nominate at Swansboro on the 4th of July. John H. Shackelford of Onslow, will probably be the nominee, having been indorsed by his county.

J. T. Waldo, of Martin and J. T. Respass are the Democratic nominees for the Senate from the Second Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Tyrrell, Washington, Martin, Dare, Hyde, Beaufort and Pamlico.

Instructed!

It is an admitted fact that every delegate to the Wake County Democratic Convention was instructed to go Brewsters to buy Hardware, Paints, Oils, and Varnish, Tinware and Crockery, Wood and Willow Ware, Iron and Steel and have their houses covered with tin. Brewster's being the best house in that line in the city, and it being our duty to do the best for the people. Hence the instructions.

The improved Howe Sewing Machines and the Howe Scale a speciality. Parts and needles for all kinds of machines always on hand. The only place in the city where a sewing machine can be thoroughly repaired. *

A Modern Miracle.

It has long been stated as a scientific proposition by medical men that a third stroke of paralysis is necessarily fatal. What then shall be said of John Appell, of North Branford, Conn., who had twelve, and who is to-day a strong vigorous man? The phenomena is ascribed by Mr. Appell to his constant application of Giles Liniment Iodide Ammonia.

A Secretion that Contaminates the Blood.

When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always the case in liver complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secretion and becomes a poison. Its abnormal presence in the circulation and stomach is indicated by the suffusion of the skin with a hideous saffron tinge, by headaches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the right side and under the right shoulder blade by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels, and other minor symptoms. Order may be substituted for this state of chaos, and further bodily evil averted by using the beneficent alterative and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of bilious impurities, besides rendering the action of the liver regular, and removing every trace of dyspepsia. This pleasant and purely vegetable anti-bilious medicine is not only infinitely more effective than any form of mercury, but is on account of its freedom from hurtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

VEGETINE.

Vegetine

I ADVISE ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING AS I HAVE SUFFERED TO GIVE VEGETINE A TRIAL

BOSTON, Sept. 5, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I have suffered with Scrofulous Humor for seven years, and could get no relief. I have tried every thing in the shape of herbs, salves, plasters, &c., but nothing did me any good. I was from my knees to my ankles one mass of sores. I was advised by police officer W. B. Hill, to try Vegetine. I commenced last July, 1876. After taking the second bottle I began to get relief, and the sores to heal up. I was finally reduced to one large ulcer on my right leg. That run so much and looked so bad, that many said I must lose my leg; but after I had taken fifteen bottles of Vegetine, my leg was all healed up, and I am now as well as ever I was in my life. I consider Vegetine the best cleanser and purifier of the blood, and advise all who may be suffering, as I have suffered to give it a trial.

HENRY T. SMITH,
No. 50 Utica St., Boston, Mass.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS.—The Vegetine has cured many cases of Scrofula of five, ten, and twenty years' standing, where the patient has had many physicians, tried many of the known remedies; and, after trying the Vegetine the common remark is, "It acts differently, works differently, from any medicine I have ever taken." Vegetine will cleanse scrofula from the system. Try it.

Vegetine.

CAN RECOMMEND.

SOMERVILLE, June 14, 1875.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—It is with great pleasure I can recommend in the high st terms y ur Vegetine as a purifier of the blood. Having met with a painful injury of the spine and sciatica nerve over fourteen years ago, my ankle has been swollen a great deal of the time, and very painful. By using Vegetine, I find great relief, as it gives a higher tone to the blood, improving my health; and I hope that all the human family in a suffering condition will avail themselves at once of this most valuable remedy.

Yours most respectfully,
WM. FISCHER T.
Station Agent, Somerville, Mass.

"Vegetine," says a Boston physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed I visited the laboratory, and convinced mys lf of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

VEGETINE.

COMPLETELY URED ME.

NEWPORT, KY., Feb. 26, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I write to say that seven bottles of your Vegetine have completely cured me from a very severe case of scrofula of many years' standing, after trying many medicines and doctoring a great deal. I am now free from all sores, and can work as well as ever, and think the Vegetine is a godsend and no one ought to do without it.

Remain, respectfully yours,
J. A. PATRICK.

Vegetine is now prescribed in cases of Scrofula, and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians, owing to its great success in curing all diseases of that nature.

Vegetine

DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

VINCENNES, IND., 1875.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—We have sold Vegetine for several years, and it has given our patrons general satisfaction. Every one speaks well of it.

Respectfully,
MOORE & HARRIS,
Wholesale and Retail Druggists,
Main St., Vincennes.

Vegetine is composed of Roots, Barks, and Herbs. It is very pleasant to take: every child likes it.
